

COOKIE AND PRIVACY POLICY

Your consent applies to the following domains: Farusa.dk/se/com

The cookie policy was last updated in April 2024

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small data file that is stored on your computer, tablet, or mobile phone. A cookie is not a program that can contain harmful software or viruses.

Website's use of cookies

Cookies may be necessary for the website to function. Cookies also help us to get an overview of your visit to the website so that we can continuously optimize and target the website to your needs and interests. Cookies remember, for example, what you have put in a potential shopping cart, whether you have visited the page before, whether you are logged in, and which language and currency you would like to be displayed on the website. We also use cookies to target our ads to you on other websites. Overall, we use cookies as part of our service to show content that is as relevant as possible for you.

You can see which services set cookies and for what purposes under the different categories [Necessary, Functional, Statistical, and Marketing].

How long are cookies stored?

It varies how long a specific cookie is stored on your devices and browsers. The lifespan of a cookie is calculated from your last visit to the website. When the lifespan of the cookie expires, it is automatically deleted. The lifespan of all our cookies is stated in our cookie policy.

How to reject or delete cookies

You can always completely reject all -/third-party cookies by changing the settings in your browser on your computer, tablet, or phone. Where to find the settings depends on which browser you use. However, be aware that if you reject all -/third-party cookies, there may be functions and services on the website that you cannot use (because they depend on cookies).

You can opt-out of cookies from Google Analytics here.

How do you delete cookies?

Cookies that you have previously accepted can easily be deleted. How you delete these depends on the browser you use (Chrome, Firefox, Safari, etc.) and on which device (mobile, tablet, pc, mac).

It is typically under Settings - Security and Privacy but can vary from browser to browser. Which device/browser do you use - click on the relevant link:

Changing your consent

You change your consent by either deleting cookies from the browser or by changing your original choice.

Remember: If you use multiple browsers, you need to delete cookies in all of them.

Do you have questions?

If you have comments or questions in connection with our information and/or processing of personal data, you are welcome to contact us.
